

Dear FENS2008 Exhibitor;

The FENS2008 Exhibitor Manual is now on-line and is accessible via the link below. Please note that while the Manual itself is open, access to the GENEVA PALEXPO Shop, to order technical & other services supplied by the venue, is restricted. An account has been created for you based on the details supplied at registration and you can log on with the below details:

<http://exposants.gponline.ch/sites/exposant/FENS08/default.aspx>

Log-on details:

- your e-mail address
- password: on your 1st log-in, ask for a password (this will be sent to you by return e-mail) - enter your password and continue (only has to be done on 1st log-in, or if you forget your password)
- stand number: on your 1st log-in, enter your stand number and request access - access will be authorized by e-mail (this is NOT automatic (as for password) and may take a day or so). This only has to be done on 1st log in, once access is authorized, enter stand number and continue to access Portal

Please refer to The GP Shop Instructions in the Manual (Left Menu, above the Shopping Cart) for full details.

Please do not hesitate to contact us with any questions.
